By Road

Coming out of London on the A3, take a left turn at Tolworth Tower onto the A240. Follow this for approximately three miles then take a left at the traffic lights onto the A232 towards Cheam (please ignore the current signs to Nonsuch Park along the A240).

Follow the Ewell Road staying left of the large octagonal church, to just past the David Lloyd gym and Bell Inn where the road bends sharply right. Take the tight left hand turn on this bend just before the war memorial – this brings you into the park via the Cheam Gate entrance.

You are now on Fir Tree Walk from which you should be able to see the mansion turrets. If you cannot see the mansion, it is likely you are at one of the park’s other entrances. The archway through to the garden will bring you to the South Porch entrance of the mansion. For those who need to be driven closer to an entrance, continue round the side of the mansion to the North Porch.
